By Elizabeth and Charlotte

Once there was a little bee.
She was lonely so she decided to travel. She wants to find a friend.

Little Bee flew up
in the sky, she didn't want to be friends with a bird so she went to the ocean.

In the Ocean she did not make any
friends

Then when she was on dry land she saw another bee, she began talking with him and they became friends.
